Oregon Equestrian Trails is a non-profit organization formed in 1970 that:

- Builds and maintains horse camps and trails in Oregon
- Works to ensure that public lands remain open to recreational equestrian use through relationships with local, state, and federal government agencies
- Promotes education of equestrians and other user groups in the use of "Leave No Trace" outdoor ethics, campground etiquette, and trail etiquette
- Links equestrians together by relating news that impacts all Oregon equestrian trail users
